

RED CROSS ROLL CALL
SUCCESSFUL ON RHINE

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 17.—The Third Red Cross Roll Call was most successful—where do you suppose?—on the German Rhine! Not among the Germans, it is true, but among the doughboys in the American Army of Occupation.

Dispatches from national headquarters state that Company A, Eight Infantry, consisting of 250 men, enrolled one hundred per cent. on November 1, the day before the campaign opened, and that practically every other outfit plans to follow suit.

No such record as that made by the doughboys has been received from any other community.

TO GROW DISEASE-FREE SWEET POTATOES

Clemson College, November 4.—The Extension Service is making plans by which growers of sweet potatoes may secure disease-free plants and more profitable returns from their sales, as may be seen from the following report of Geo. P. Hoffman, Extension Service horticulturist.

"At the request of the Pedigreed Seed Co., Hartsville, S. C., I visited their plant and discussed with the manager (Mr. Pressley Coker) the matter of building a 5,000-bushel sweet potato storage house in which to cure Pedigreed Sweet Potato seed. This house will be built during the coming spring, as we are planning to grow disease-free plants and furnish these to parties willing to grow potatoes of standard varieties under contract for sale to this company.

"The Pedigreed Seed Co.'s storage house now in use is a grand success, and the potatoes cured during the past season were shipped to Washington, D. C., in crates bringing a net profit of more than $3.00 per crate of one bushel. The varieties were Nancy Hall and Porto Rico."

PINE RIDGE

A cake walk, fish pond, voting contest and box party will be given at Pine Ridge school Wednesday night November 26, for the benefit of the school. The public is cordially invited to attend.

ST. JOHN'S

There will be a public meeting of the St. John's Literary Society (including debate on woman's suffrage) at St. John's school house Saturday night Nov. 29th. at 7:30 o'clock. There will also be a fish fry and oyster supper served by the ladies of the school improvement league immediately afterward. The public is cordially invited.

BANK OF SWANSEA WILL SOON BE NATIONAL BANK

Special to The Dispatch-News.
The Bank of Swansea, which under the able direction of its officers, has been making steady progress, will on the first of January next, become a national bank, increasing its capital to $100,000. The bank has found this step necessary to meet the ever increasing demands of the progressive business of the community. The resources of the Bank of Swansea are now something over a half million and its nationalization will still further strengthen the institution.

Officers of the bank are:
W. H. Witt, president.
R. L. Lybrand, vice president.
B. E. Craft, cashier.
Mrs. B. E. Craft, assistant cashier.
Holland E. Derrick, bookkeeper.
The directors are as follows: W. H. Witt, R. L. Lybrand, B. E. Craft, W. B. Rast, D. E. Craft, C. L. Rast, B. E. Williams, L. H. Witt, I. W. Hutto.

A GROWING BUSINESS.

Special to The Dispatch-News:
Chapin, Nov. 17.—Mr. R. Walter M. Eleazer, one of our popular rural mail carriers, will in the near future make a considerable addition to his stock of auto accessories. Mr. Eleazer started this business in a small way and is developing it rapidly to meet the increasing of the auto owners in this vicinity.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. R. FRICK.

Francis Eugenia Frick, nee Lindler, was born on June 9th, 1857; departed this life Oct. 1st, 1919, at the age of 62 years, 3 months and 22 days. She was married on November 16, 1873 to Mr. John R. Frick. To this union was born 9 children, three boys and six girls, two sons and one daughter having preceded her into eternity. 31 grand children—24 living, 7 dead.

In infancy she was consecrated to the Lord in holy baptism, later renewing her baptismal covenant by being confirmed a member of St. Jacob's Ev. Lutheran church of which she remained a member until death. She leaves to mourn her departure a devoted husband, six affectionate children, 24 grand children, one great grand child, one brother and one sister besides numerous relatives and friends.

Dearest grandmother, how we miss thee!
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow over our life is cast;
We miss the sunshine of thy face

We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care;
Our home is dark without thee.
We miss thee, everywhere.

A face we loved to see is gone,
A voice we loved to hear is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

Through all pains at times she'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth;
And when the angels called her home
She smiled farewell to earth.

She has crossed the cold dark river,
Angels hold her gently by the hand,
She is safe from storms forever,
Safe within the promised land.

She is happy now forever,
All her suffering now is o'er;
And with smiling face she's waiting,
For her dear ones on the shore.

Dearest grandmother, how we loved you!
No pen can write, nor tongue can tell;
But the tender shepherd called you,
We must bid a long farewell.

Sure, we miss your gentle footsteps,
Miss each kind and gentle word.

No more in the lonely household
Will your tender voice be heard.
But up yonder in the portals,
That are shining very fair,
Grandmother is now sheltered,
By the Saviour's loving care.

Oh, how hard it is to part
With the one we prized so high,
To stand and watch beside the bed
And see our dear grandmother die.

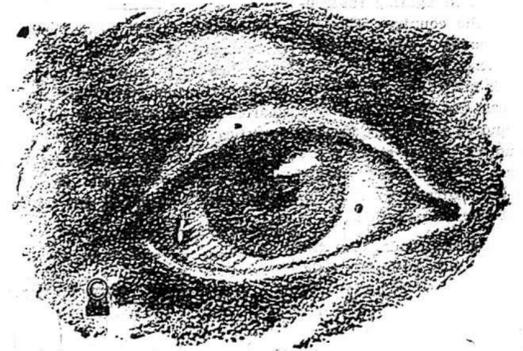

But heaven now retains our treasure;
Earth the lonely casket keeps;
And the sunbeams love to linger.

Where our sainted, loved one sleeps,
The golden gates were opened,
A gentle voice said, come!
And angels from the other side,
Welcomed our dear grandmother home.

So farewell, dearest grandmother!
You have only gone before,
And if we are but as faithful,
We shall meet thee on the golden shore.

By her granddaughter,
Ernestine Williams.
